Sound Stages

Let your imagination run wild with our sound stages, set construction and prop shop, costume shop, and EFX Makeup class.

THE MAJORITY OF WORKING ACTORS EARN THEIR LIVING FROM ON-CAMERA WORK.

To ensure our graduates the best shot at getting this work, our training revolves around preparing you for the professional film and television environment. Your instructors are working actors and directors, voiceover artists, producers, and screenwriters. Our program is run by a multiple-Academy-Award-winning producer.

Focus On Acting

Our actors act. With no filler or theoretical classes, it is all acting, all the time. In class, on our soundstages, and on location, you'll experience what it means to be in production. You'll bond with your fellow creatives as you create story worlds to reach today's audiences.

Personalized Acting Techniques

Every actor is different, with unique strengths, potential, and areas for development. Our flexible, team-based approach recognizes that your journey through imagination, physical expressiveness, and style of play is your own. Get the individualized acting tips and in-depth training that you need to succeed.

Reel Development

Learn how to make dynamic acting choices. Star in soundstage scenes that showcase your talents.

Voiceover

Explore the lucrative world of voiceover. Create character voices for games and animation, and learn the tricks of the commercial trade.

Comedy And Sketch

Using improv and sketch-writing techniques, create short pieces for social media.

Meisner Technique

Grow your work as an actor from a place of authenticity. Get outside yourself and respond organically to cues from the environment.

Alexander Technique For Camera

Practice creating characters physically, mentally, and energetically. Free yourself to transform into a range of characters.
